Planning Commission Agenda Item

Agenda Item No.: g.1.

Date: February 25, 2025

From: Nicole McGowan, Planner, Thomas Glover, Community Development Director

Subject: 2025 Comprehensive Plan Vision Statement Workshop 2

RECOMMENDED ACTION:

Prepare to engage in staff-led exercises aimed at finalizing the vision statement for inclusion in the 2025 Comprehensive Plan.

ISSUE:

At the February 18, 2025 Planning Commission meeting, the Commissioners reviewed the latest draft of the vision statement intended for inclusion in the 2025 Comprehensive Plan. At the meeting, the Commissioners voiced that the draft still needs some refinement before it is ready to be presented to the Council for approval.

BACKGROUND/SUMMARY INFORMATION:

For tonight's special meeting, we will be conducting a couple of exercises to refine the draft vision statement (included as Attachment 1) with the goal of finalizing any remaining changes and ensuring we have a statement that reflects our collective vision for the City's future.

FISCAL IMPACT, IF APPROPRIATE:

None.

Draft – Comprehensive Plan Vision Statement February 13, 2025

In 2046, Sedro-Woolley is a city built on hard work, dreams, and the ingenuity of generations who have turned vision into reality. From the pioneering families who laid a strong foundation to the next generation pushing boundaries in groundbreaking technology, the City thrives on resilience and innovation.

Sedro-Woolley welcomes visitors to experience its rich heritage and recreational, civic, and high-tech amenities. Its pedestrian friendly, thriving downtown offers a diverse range of housing options and commercial and retail businesses, including quality restaurants, unique shops, events, and cultural attractions. All of those are seamlessly connected by walkable streets and gathering spaces, creating a lively atmosphere where people can enjoy outdoor activities, meet locals, and experience Sedro-Woolley's strong sense of community.

Having grown gracefully and maintained its “small-town” feel, Sedro-Woolley offers a high quality of life for its residents. Multi-generational neighborhoods feature a mix of housing choices close to parks, trails, schools, retail commercial areas, and jobs. It’s century-old businesses, rich heritage, strong schools, year-round events, and unwavering community support set it apart from many communities who have lost their way. Through it all, Sedro-Woolley has stayed true to its values, welcoming new business and neighbors who ring fresh energy and new opportunities. With each step forward, this community remains a place where history, progress, and community come together-because there is only one Sedro-Woolley on earth!
